

Royal College of Physicians

Professor Beverley Hunt's biography

Professor Beverley Hunt is Professor of Thrombosis & Haemostasis at King's College London; a Consultant in the Departments of Haematology & Pathology at Guy's & St Thomas NHS Foundation Trust; & Clinical Lead in Haematological Sciences at Viapath

She has a large clinical practice, specialising in thrombosis and haemostasis, especially in inherited and acquired thrombophilias, obstetric haematology and acquired bleeding disorders. She is a national and international expert in thrombosis and acquired bleeding disorders. In England, she works frequently with NICE, is on their Expert Panel, and is involved in rewriting the NICE thromboprophylaxis guidelines.

Her work is recognised internationally and she is honorary president of "VTE Ireland" and the ambassador for the antipidean organisation HOW (Haematologists in Obstetric & Womens health. She sits on the editorial board of the British Journal for Haematology, Journal of Thrombosis & Haemostasis, Lupus & Seminars in Thrombosis & Haemostasis. She is a chair in the ISTH Perioperative Haemostasis group.

She runs a research group with over 300 peer-reviewed publications to her name, and won the BMJ Research paper of the year 2011 with the CRASH-2 team. .

She is Founder and now Medical Director of the thrombosis charity, 'Lifblood: the thrombosis charity', now Thrombosis UK which was Health Charity of the Year 2010 for its campaigning to improve patient care in the UK. She is part of a global team organising the global "World Thrombosis Day".