

Royal College of Physicians

Dr Mark Holland Biography

Mark qualified from St George's Hospital Medical School in 1988. He trained in Geriatric and General Internal Medicine in East London. He was appointed as a consultant geriatrician in 1999. He moved to Acute Medicine in 2004. He was President of the Society for Acute Medicine from 2015 to 2017. Mark currently works at Salford Royal Hospital, is Immediate Past President to the Society for Acute Medicine and is an Associate Professor at the University of Bolton, where he supports training for advanced practitioners in Acute Medicine.